

Board of Ethics and Government Accountability

POST-EMPLOYMENT TRAINING

After you Leave Government - Ethics

Learn what former DC Government employees are ethically prohibited from doing after leaving a government position.

What's covered?

- Negotiating for a new job while you are still with the District Government.
- After you leave your District Government job:
 - Who you can and cannot work for;
 - What you are permitted to do;
 - Prohibitions and restrictions on communicating with your former government colleagues; and
 - Identifying matters from which you are permanently barred
- Lifetime ethics advice and guidance from BEGA
- Federal and BEGA penalties for violations

Trainings (2 hour sessions) will be held at One Judiciary Square, 441 4th Street, NW.

- 11 a.m., Friday, June 13 - Rm. 1117S
- 1 p.m., Tuesday, July 15 - Rm. 1107S

To RSVP for a scheduled training, please visit:

<http://www.bega-dc.gov/bega-meetings-and-training>

Contact BEGA at (202) 481-3411, BEGA Hotline (202) 535-1002 or visit www.bega-dc.gov