Job Description:

Two Marines Moving is Hiring!

20 open Positions Available: Movers (Load-Master & Crew-Chief)

Job Description & Nature of Work

Movers load household goods or office furniture into trucks, transport it to a new location, and then unload it. They may move as few as one or two items or the contents of an entire house or office. One of their main objectives is to transport items without damage, so they know the best way to pack delicate items such as china, glassware, and mirrors. They may disassemble furniture, such as beds, so it fits through doorways or into elevators. They may place furniture in special containers designed to protect it or build crates for irregularly shaped items. The work requires physical strength, stamina, and good organizational skills. Hours can be long and irregular.

Type of Employment Available: 1. Full-Time (Tailored for prior service, reservist, National Guard, and Delayed Entry Program/future military) 2. Part-Time (Tailored to prior service/ ROTC students with flexible scheduling requirements) 3. Weekend Only (Tailored for those on Active Duty or those who have Full-Time jobs) 4. Transitional/ Temporary (Tailored as temporary employment for those exiting the military, but seeking a job in their field)

We are actively seeking candidates that fall into several categories: * Marines, Army, Navy, Air-Force * Future military that are under contract & in the Delayed Entry program with any of the branches * ROTC students, OCS candidates * National Guard & Reservist
