D.C. PERSONNEL REGULATIONS

1800 APPLICABILITY AND BASIC EMPLOYEE OBLIGATIONS

- 1800.1 This chapter applies to the ethical responsibilities of all employees pursuant to Chapter XVIII of the District of Columbia Government Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act of 1978, effective March 3, 1979, as amended (D.C. Law 2-139; D.C. Official Code § 1-618.01 et seq.).
- 1800.2 Each employee has a responsibility to the District of Columbia and its citizens to place loyalty to the laws and ethical principles above private gain. To ensure that every citizen can have complete confidence in the integrity of the District government, each employee shall respect and adhere to the principles of ethical conduct set forth in this section, as well as the District of Columbia Employee Ethics Pledge and in supplemental agency regulations and policies.
- 1800.3 The following general principles apply to every employee and form the basis for the standards contained in this chapter. Where a situation is not specifically covered by another provision of law or policy, employees shall apply the following principles set forth in this section in determining whether their conduct is proper:
- (a) Government service is a public trust, requiring employees to place loyalty to the laws and ethical principles above private gain.
 - (b) Employees shall not hold financial interests that conflict with the conscientious performance of duty.
 - (c) Employees shall not engage in financial transactions using nonpublic government information or allow the improper use of such information to further any private interest.
 - (d) An employee shall not, except as permitted by Section 1803 of this chapter, solicit or accept any gift or other item of monetary value from any person or entity seeking official action from, doing business with, or conducting activities regulated by the employee's agency, or whose interests may be substantially affected by the performance or nonperformance of the employee's duties.
 - (e) Employees shall put forth honest effort in the performance of their duties.
 - (f) Employees shall not knowingly make unauthorized commitments or promises of any kind purporting to bind the government.
 - (g) Employees shall not use public office or position for private gain.

- (h) Employees shall act impartially and not give preferential treatment to any private organization or individual.
- (i) Employees shall protect and conserve government property and shall not use it for other than authorized activities.
- (j) Employees shall not engage in outside employment or activities, including seeking or negotiating for employment, that conflict with their official government duties and responsibilities.
- (k) Employees shall report credible violations of the District Code of Conduct and this chapter to appropriate authorities.
- (l) Employees shall satisfy in good faith their lawful obligations, including all just financial obligations to federal, state, District and local governments.
- (m) Employees shall adhere to all federal, state, and local laws and regulations.
- (n) Employees shall not take actions creating the appearance that they are violating the law or the ethical standards set forth in this chapter. Whether particular circumstances create an appearance that the law or these standards have been violated shall be determined from the perspective of a reasonable person with knowledge of the relevant facts.

1800.4 An employee may not do indirectly what he or she may not do directly under this chapter.

1801 EMPLOYEE COOPERATION

1801.1 Employees shall immediately and directly report credible violations of the District Code of Conduct and violations of this chapter to the District of Columbia Office of Government Ethics, the District of Columbia Office of the Inspector General, or both.

1801.2 An employee shall not interfere with or obstruct any investigation conducted by a District or federal agency.

1801.3 An employee shall fully cooperate with any investigation, enforcement action, or other official function of the Office of Government Ethics.

1801.4 Coercive, harassing, or retaliatory action shall not be taken against any employee acting in good faith under this section.

1802 REMEDIAL ACTION

- 1802.1 A violation of this chapter or supplemental agency regulations and policies shall be cause for appropriate corrective or disciplinary action to be taken under the procedures applicable to the employee.
- 1802.2 It is the responsibility of the employing agency to initiate appropriate remedial, corrective, or adverse action in individual cases. Such action may be in addition to any other action or penalty prescribed by law.
- 1802.3 An employee who violates the Code of Conduct shall be subject to applicable civil and criminal penalties pursuant to Section 221 of the Board of Ethics and Government Accountability Establishment and Comprehensive Ethics Amendment Act of 2011 (D.C. Law 19-124; D.C. Official Code § 1-1162.21). Penalties imposed by BEGA are separate and apart from any corrective or disciplinary action taken by the employing agency.

1803 GIFTS FROM OUTSIDE SOURCES

- 1803.1 This section contains standards that prohibit an employee from soliciting or accepting any gift from a prohibited source or given because of the employee's official position unless the item is excluded from the definition of a gift or falls within one of the exceptions set forth in this section.
- 1803.2 Except as otherwise provided in this section, an employee shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit or accept a gift:
- (a) From a prohibited source; or
 - (b) Given because of the employee's official position or duties.
- 1803.3 Notwithstanding any exception provided in this section, an employee shall not:
- (a) Accept a gift in return for being influenced in the performance or nonperformance of an official act;
 - (b) Solicit or coerce the offering of a gift; or
 - (c) Accept gifts from the same or different sources on a basis so frequent that a reasonable person would be led to believe the employee is using his or her public office for private gain.
- 1803.4 For purposes of this section, the following meanings apply:
- (a) "Gift" means any gratuity, favor, discount, entertainment, hospitality, loan, forbearance, or other item having monetary value. It includes services as well as gifts of training, transportation, local travel, lodgings and meals, whether provided in-kind, by purchase of a ticket, payment in advance, or reimbursement after the expense has been incurred. It does not include:

- (1) Modest items of food and refreshments, such as soft drinks, coffee and donuts, offered other than as part of a meal;
- (2) Greeting cards and items with little intrinsic value, such as plaques, certificates, and trophies, which are intended solely for presentation;
- (3) Unsolicited advertising or promotional items of nominal value, such as pens and note pads;
- (4) Unsolicited items received by employees for the purposes of evaluation or review, provided the employee has no beneficial personal interest in the eventual use or acquisition of the item by the employee's agency;
- (5) Food and beverages, of nominal value, consumed at hosted receptions where attendance is related to the employee's official duties;
- (6) Admission to and the cost of food and beverages consumed at events sponsored by or in conjunction with a civic, charitable, governmental or community organization, when the admission, food and beverages are of a nominal value;
- (7) Unsolicited gifts from dignitaries from the federal government, a state or territory, or a foreign country that are of a nominal value and intended to be personal in nature and, in the case of a foreign country, are permitted under 5 U.S.C. § 7342;
- (8) Loans from banks and other financial institutions on terms generally available to the public;
- (9) Opportunities and benefits, including favorable rates and commercial discounts, available to the public or to a class consisting of all government employees or all uniformed members of the Metropolitan Police Department and/or Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department, whether or not restricted on the basis of geographic considerations;
- (10) Rewards and prizes given to competitors in contests or events, including random drawings, open to the public unless the

- employee's entry into the contest or event is required as part of his official duties;
- (11) Pension and other benefits resulting from continued participation in an employee welfare and benefits plan maintained by a former employer;
 - (12) Anything which is paid for by the District or secured by the District under a District contract;
 - (13) Any gift accepted by the District government under specific statutory authority; or
 - (14) Anything for which market value is paid by the employee.
- (b) "Prohibited source" means any person or entity who:
- (1) Is seeking official action by the employee's agency;
 - (2) Does business or seeks to do business with the employee's agency;
 - (3) Conducts activities regulated by the employee's agency;
 - (4) Has interests that may be substantially affected by performance or nonperformance of the employee's official duties; or
 - (5) Is an organization in which the majority of its members are described in subparagraphs (1) through (4) of this subsection.
- (c) A gift is accepted or solicited because of the employee's position if it is from a person other than an employee and would not have been solicited, offered, or given had the employee not held the status, authority or duties associated with his District government position.
- (d) A gift which is accepted or solicited indirectly includes a gift:
- (1) Given with the employee's knowledge and acquiescence to his parent, sibling, spouse, child, or dependent relative because of that person's relationship to the employee, or
 - (2) Given to any other person or entity, including any charitable organization, on the basis of designation, recommendation, or other specification by the employee.

1803.5 The prohibitions set forth in this section do not apply to gifts accepted under the circumstances described in paragraphs (a) through (e) of this subsection, and an employee's acceptance of a gift in accordance with one of those paragraphs will be deemed not to violate the principles set forth in Section 1800.

- (a) An employee may accept unsolicited gifts having a market value of $10 or less per source per occasion, provided that the aggregate market value of individual gifts received from any one person under the authority of this paragraph shall not exceed $20 in a calendar year, except when the offer of the gift would appear to a reasonable person to be intended to influence the employee in his or her official duties.
- (b) An employee may accept a gift given under circumstances which make it clear that the gift is motivated by a family relationship or personal friendship rather than the position of the employee.
- (c) An employee may accept meals, lodgings, transportation and other benefits:
 - (1) Resulting from the business or employment activities of an employee's spouse or domestic partner when it is clear that such benefits have not been offered or enhanced because of the employee's official position; or
 - (2) Resulting from the employee's authorized outside business or employment activities when it is clear that such benefits have not been offered or enhanced because of the employee's official status.
- (d) When an employee is assigned to participate as a speaker or panel participant or otherwise to present information on behalf of the agency at a conference or other event, his acceptance of an offer of free attendance at the event on the day of his presentation is permissible when provided by the sponsor of the event. The employee's participation in the event on that day is viewed as a customary and necessary part of his performance of the assignment and does not involve a gift to him or to the agency. Any such assignment must be made by the employee's agency head, or other designee, in writing.
- (e) When an employee's attendance is in the interest of the agency, as determined by the Mayor or designee, in writing, because it will further agency programs and operations, the employee may accept an unsolicited gift of free attendance at all or appropriate parts of a widely attended gathering of mutual interest to a number of parties from the sponsor of the event or, if more than 50 persons are expected to attend the event and the gift of free attendance has a market value of $350 or less, from a person other than the sponsor of the event. A gathering is widely attended if it is expected that a large number of persons will attend and that persons with a diversity of views or interests will be present, for example, if it is open to members from throughout the interested industry or profession or if those in attendance represent a range of persons interested in a given matter. For employees subject to a leave system, attendance at the event shall be on the employee's own time or, if authorized by the employee's agency, without charge to the employee's leave account.

1803.6 Whenever an employee accepts a contribution, award or payment in accordance with Paragraphs 1803.5(d) or (e), the agency shall maintain the following records for a period of no less than two (2) years:

- (a) The name of the recipient;
- (b) The name of the organization;
- (c) The amount and nature of the contribution, award, or payment and the purpose for which it is to be used; and
- (d) A copy of the written authorization.

1803.7 An employee who receives a gift that cannot be accepted under the provisions of this section shall inform the person offering the gift that District government ethics rules do not permit acceptance of gifts, and:

- (a) Return the gift to the donor, donate the gift to a tax exempt organization pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3), or reimburse the donor the market value of the gift; or
- (b) If the gift is perishable and it would not be practical to return it to the donor, donate the gift to charity, share it with office staff, or destroy it.
- (c) The actions set forth in (a) and (b) above may be taken one time only with respect to any donor.

1803.8 In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 209, an employee shall not receive any salary or anything of monetary value from a private source as compensation for his or her services to the government.

1804 GIFTS BETWEEN EMPLOYEES

1804.1 Except as provided in Subsection 1804.6, this section contains standards that prohibit an employee from giving, donating to, or soliciting contributions for, a gift to an official superior and from accepting a gift from a co-worker receiving less pay than the employee, unless the item is excluded from the definition of a gift or falls within one of the exceptions set forth in this section.

1804.2 Except as otherwise provided in this section, an employee may not:

- (a) Directly or indirectly, give a gift to or make a donation toward a gift for an official superior; or
- (b) Solicit a contribution from another employee for a gift to their official superior or the other employee's official superior.

1804.3 Except as provided in this section, an employee may not, directly or indirectly, accept a gift from an employee receiving less pay than themselves unless:

- (a) The two employees are not in a subordinate-official superior relationship;
- (b) There is a personal relationship between the two employees that would justify the gift; and
- (c) The gift was not given or solicited to gain or induce any professional advantage.

1804.4 Notwithstanding any exception provided in this section, an official superior shall not coerce a subordinate to make or contribute to a gift.

1804.5 For purposes of this section, the following meanings apply:

- (a) "Gift" has the meaning set forth in Section 1803. For purposes of that definition an employee will be deemed to have paid market value for any benefit received as a result of their participation in any carpool or other such mutual arrangement involving another employee or other employees if he or she bears their fair proportion of the expense or effort involved.
- (b) "Official superior" means any other employee including but not limited to an immediate supervisor, whose official responsibilities include directing or evaluating the performance of the employee's official duties or those of any other official superior of the employee. For purposes of this section, an employee is considered to be the subordinate of any of his official superiors.
- (c) "Solicit" means to request contributions by personal communication or by general announcement.
- (d) "Voluntary contribution" means a contribution given freely, without pressure or coercion. A contribution is not voluntary unless it is made in an amount determined by the contributing employee, except that where an amount for a gift is included in the cost for a luncheon, reception or similar event, an employee who freely chooses to pay a proportionate share of the total cost in order to attend will be deemed to have made a voluntary contribution. Except in the case of contributions for a gift included in the cost of a luncheon, reception or similar event, a statement that an employee may choose to contribute less or not at all shall accompany any recommendation of an amount to be contributed for a gift to an official superior.

1804.6 The prohibitions set forth in Subsections 1804.2 and 1804.3 do not apply to a gift given or accepted under the circumstances established in Paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection. A contribution or the solicitation of a contribution that would otherwise violate Subsections 1804.2 and 1804.3 may only be made in accordance with Paragraph (c) of this subsection.

- (a) On an occasional basis, including any occasion on which gifts are traditionally given or exchanged, the following may be given to an official superior or accepted from a subordinate or other employee receiving less pay:
 - (1) Items, other than cash, with an aggregate market value of $10 or less per occasion;
 - (2) Items such as food and refreshments to be shared in the office among several employees;
 - (3) Personal hospitality provided at a residence which is of a type and value customarily provided by the employee to personal friends; and
 - (4) Items given in connection with the receipt of personal hospitality if of a type and value customarily given on such occasions.
- (b) A gift appropriate to the occasion may be given to an official superior or accepted from a subordinate or other employee receiving less pay:
 - (1) In recognition of infrequently occurring occasions of personal significance such as marriage, illness, or the birth or adoption of a child; or
 - (2) Upon occasions that terminate a subordinate-official superior relationship, such as retirement, resignation, or transfer.
- (c) An employee may solicit voluntary contributions of nominal amounts from fellow employees for an appropriate gift to an official superior and an employee may make a voluntary contribution of a nominal amount to an appropriate gift to an official superior:

- (1) On a special, infrequent occasion as described in paragraph (b) of this section; or
 - (2) On an occasional basis, for items such as food and refreshments to be shared in the office among several employees.
- (d) An employee may accept such gifts to which a subordinate or other employee receiving less pay than himself or herself has contributed.

1804.7 For the purposes of Subsections 1804.3 and 1804.4 of this section, the term nominal means an individual cash donation of no more than ten dollars ($10) or an individual voluntary gift of no more than ten dollars ($10) in market value.

1805 FINANCIAL INTERESTS AND DISCLOSURES

1805.1 It is the policy of the District government to avoid conflicts of interest concerning the award, implementation, monitoring, and performance of contracts for services. Accordingly, as a means of assisting District government agencies to evaluate real or potential conflicts of interest in this area, each employee will be required to disclose to his or her employing agency upon appointment, such previous employment relationships (whether in the private or public sectors) as the employing agency may direct, including full disclosure of any ongoing economic benefits to the employee from previous employment relationships.

1805.2 For the purposes of this section, the following terms apply:

- (a) “Ongoing economic benefit from a former employer” shall include any pension, annuity, stock option, bonus, cash or in-kind distribution in satisfaction of equitable interest, payment of all or a portion of the premiums on a life or health insurance policy, or any other comparable benefit.
- (b) A “former employer” is any person or organization:
 - (1) For whom or for which the employee has, within the one (1) year preceding his or her employment by the District government, served as an officer, director, trustee, general partner, agent, attorney, consultant, contractor, or employee; or
 - (2) From whom or from which the employee receives an ongoing economic benefit.

1805.3 The employing agency shall inform each new hire of the requirement to disclose employment relationships as described in Subsection 1805.1. A new hire with employment relationships to disclose shall so inform his or her immediate supervisor and a person designated by the agency head, and complete D.C.

Standard Form 36, Previous Employment Relationships, within thirty (30) days of the effective date of the new appointment.

- 1805.4 The head of the employing agency will communicate the information required to be disclosed under this subsection to each new hire, and advise the employee in writing of the restrictions imposed by this subsection.
- (a) For one (1) year after the date of initial employment with the District government, an employee required to make a disclosure under this section will be screened from and shall not participate in any manner, in the District government's decision to enter into, extend, modify, or renew a contract or consultancy engagement with the employee's former employer (hereafter, "procurement action").
 - (b) The one-year (1-year) restriction from participation in any procurement action prescribed in paragraph (a) will be extended for as long as the employee receives an ongoing economic benefit from a former employer. It will be the employee's responsibility to advise his or her immediate supervisor and a person designated by the agency head of the continued receipt of the ongoing economic benefit from a former employer.
- 1805.5 Notwithstanding the prohibitions set forth in Subsection 1805.4, the head of the employing agency may authorize an employee, required to make a disclosure under this section, to do any of the following as part of the employee's official duties:
- (a) Participate in the oversight or review of the work-product or performance of a former employer that is currently a contractor or consultant with the District government;
 - (b) Serve as the District government's liaison with the former employer; or
 - (c) Otherwise communicate with the former employer on matters pending before the employee's employing agency.
- 1805.6 The determination to require an employee to perform any of the duties listed in Subsection 1805.5 shall be based upon a written determination of the agency head, made in light of all relevant circumstances, that the interest of the District government in the employee's participation outweighs the concern that a reasonable person might question the integrity of the District government's programs or operations. Applying this standard, the agency head may determine that the employee's participation reasonably may be permitted in certain activities involving the employee's former employer, but not in others. In all instances under this section in which the employee is prohibited from participation, the employee will be screened from the receipt of any information regarding the former employer's matter that is pending before the District government.

- 1805.7 An agency head may delegate the responsibility for making any of the determinations prescribed in this section to other personnel in the agency. The person in the agency making any such determinations may consult with the Board of Government Ethics and Accountability.
- 1805.8 No District government employee or any member of his or her immediate household shall knowingly:
- (a) Acquire any stocks, bonds, commodities, real estate, or other property, whether held individually or in concert with others, the possession of which could unduly influence or give the appearance of unduly influencing the employee in the conduct of his or her official duties and responsibilities as a District government employee; or
 - (b) Acquire an interest in or operate any business or commercial enterprise which is in any way related, directly or indirectly, to the employee's official duties, or which might otherwise be involved in an official action taken or recommended by the employee, or which is in any way related to matters over which the employee could wield any influence, official or otherwise.
- 1805.9 A District government employee who is called upon to act for or on behalf of the District government in a matter relating to or involving a non-governmental entity in which the employee or a member of the employee's immediate family has a financial interest, shall make this fact known to his or her immediate supervisor and a person designated by the agency head, in writing, at the earliest possible moment. Unless a waiver of the conflict of interest is granted by BEGA pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 1-1162.23(b), the head of the employing District government agency subsequently shall determine whether or not the employee must divest him or herself of such interest, or merely disqualify him or herself from taking part in any official decision or action involving the matter.
- 1805.10 Nothing contained in this chapter shall preclude the Mayor from serving as an honorary chair or honorary member of a nonprofit entity's fundraising event, so long as the entity for which funds are raised supports a nongovernmental bona fide charitable activity benefiting the District of Columbia. Use of the Mayor's name or title in fundraising solicitations or announcements of general circulation shall be in accordance with such terms and limitations as the Mayor may prescribe by Mayor's order or by direction in particular cases. The authority granted by this subsection shall not extend to the use of the Mayor's name or title in solicitations made by or on behalf of the Mayor directly to individual contributors.

1806 RESTRICTIONS ON THE EMPLOYMENT OF RELATIVES (NEPOTISM)

- 1806.1 In accordance with the District of Columbia Government Comprehensive Merit Personnel Amendment Act of 2012 (D.C. Law 19-115, D.C. Official Code § 1-618.04); and the Civil Service Act of 1967, as amended, effective October 13, 1978 (Pub.L. 90-206, 5 U.S.C. § 3110), this section restricts the hiring and advancing of relatives by public officials.
- 1806.2 For purposes of this section, the following meanings apply:
- (a) “Public official” means an officer, employee, or any other individual in whom authority by law, rule, or regulation is vested, or to whom the authority has been delegated to select, appoint, employ, promote, reassign, demote, separate, or recommend individuals for any of these actions.
 - (b) A “hiring decision” means selecting, appointing, employing, promoting, reassigning, advancing, or advocating a personnel action.
- 1806.3 A public official may not directly or indirectly make a hiring decision regarding a position within his or her own agency with respect to a relative. Specifically, a public official may not appoint, employ, promote, evaluate, interview, or advance (or advocate for such actions) any individual who is a relative in an agency in which the public official serves or exercises jurisdiction or control. A violation of this subsection shall constitute disciplinary cause and subject the public official to disciplinary action, up to, and including removal.
- 1806.4 Any hiring decision secured or effectuated in violation of this section shall be rescinded immediately.
- 1806.5 In addition to any other remedies available pursuant to law, including penalties imposed by the Office of Government Ethics, a public official who violates Subsection 1806.3 shall pay restitution to the District of Columbia for any gains received by the relative.
- 1806.6 When the agency contemplates making a hiring decision concerning a relative of a public official within the same agency, the public official must file a written recusal, which shall be included in the relative’s official personnel file along with the subject personnel action.
- 1806.7 In the event of emergencies resulting from natural or manmade disasters, the

Mayor may suspend the prohibitions of this section, as permitted by the District of Columbia Government Comprehensive Merit Personnel Amendment Act of 2012

(D.C. Official Code § 1-618.04); and the Civil Service Act of 1967, as amended (5 U.S.C. § 3110(d)).

1807 OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT AND PRIVATE REPRESENTATIONS

1807.1 A District government employee shall not engage in any outside employment or other activity incompatible with the full and proper discharge of his or her duties and responsibilities. Activities or actions that are not compatible with government employment include, but are not limited to the following:

- (a) Engaging in any outside employment, private business activity, or other interest that is reasonably likely to interfere with the employee's ability to perform his or her job, or which may impair the efficient operation of the District government;
- (b) Using government time or resources for other than official business, or government approved or sponsored activities;
- (c) Ordering, directing, or requesting subordinate officers or employees to perform during regular working hours any personal services not related to official District government functions and activities;
- (d) Maintaining financial or economic interest in or serving (with or without compensation) as an officer or director of an outside entity if there is any likelihood that such entity might be involved in an official government action or decision taken or recommended by the employee;
- (e) Engaging in any outside employment, private business activity, or interest which permits an employee, or others, to capitalize on his or her official title or position;
- (f) Divulging any official government information to any unauthorized person or in advance of the time prescribed for its authorized issuance, or otherwise making use of or permitting others to make use of information not available to the general public;
- (g) Engaging in any outside employment, private business activity, or other interest which might impair an employee's mental or physical capacity to such an extent that he or she can no longer carry out his or her duties and responsibilities as a government employee in a proper and efficient manner;
- (h) Serving in a representative capacity or as an agent or attorney for any outside entity involving any matter before the District of Columbia, except as permitted by Subsection 1807.6 or 1807.7; or

- (i) Engaging in any outside employment, private business activity, or other interest which is in violation of federal or District law.

- 1807.2 A District government employee may receive compensation for engaging in teaching activities, writing for publication, consultative activities, and speaking engagements that are not prohibited by law, regulation, or agency standards, only if such activities are conducted outside of regular working hours, or while the employee is on annual leave, compensatory leave, exempt time off, or leave without pay.
- 1807.3 The information used by an employee engaging in an activity under Subsection 1807.2 of this section shall not draw on official data or ideas which have not become part of the body of public information, except nonpublic information that has been made available on request for use in such capacity, or unless the agency head gives written authorization for use on the basis that its use is in the public interest.
- 1807.4 If the employee receives compensation or anything of monetary value for engaging in an activity under Subsection 1807.2 of this section, the subject matter shall not be devoted substantially to the responsibilities, programs, or operations of his or her agency, to his or her official duties or responsibilities, or to information obtained from his or her government employment.
- 1807.5 An employee who is employed for not more than one hundred thirty (130) days during any period of three hundred sixty-five (365) consecutive days, to perform temporary duties, either on a full-time or intermittent basis, shall be subject to Subsection 1807.1(h) of this section only in relation to a particular matter involving specific parties in which he or she has at any time participated personally and substantially as a District government employee, or which is pending before his or her employing agency.
- 1807.6 Nothing in this section shall prevent an employee from acting without compensation as agent or attorney for another District employee who is the subject of any personnel action, if not inconsistent with his or her duties.
- 1807.7 Nothing in this chapter shall prevent an employee from acting, with or without compensation, as agent or attorney for his or her parent(s), spouse, domestic partner, child, or any person for whom, or for any estate for which, he or she is serving as guardian, executor, administrator, trustee, or other personal fiduciary except in those matters in which he or she has participated personally and substantially as a government employee, through decision, approval, disapproval, recommendation, the rendering of advice, investigation, or otherwise, or which are the subject of the employee's official responsibility, provided that the government official responsible for appointment to the employee's position approves. This provision shall not abridge a government attorney's responsibilities under the District of Columbia Rules of Professional Conduct.

1808 GOVERNMENT PROPERTY

1808.1 An employee has a duty to protect and conserve government property and shall not use such property, or allow its use, for other than authorized purposes.

1808.2 For purposes of this section the following definitions apply:

- (a) "Government property" includes any form of real or personal property in which a federal, District, state, or local government agency or entity has an ownership, leasehold, or other property interest as well as any right or other intangible interest that is purchased with government funds, including the services of contractor personnel. The term includes office supplies, telephone and other telecommunications equipment and services, the government mails, automated data processing capabilities, printing and reproduction facilities, government records, and government vehicles.
- (b) "Authorized purposes" are those purposes for which government property is made available to members of the public or those purposes authorized by an agency head in accordance with law or regulation.

1809 ADDITIONAL STANDARDS

1809.1 Each subordinate and independent agency of the District government may prescribe additional standards of ethical conduct and reporting requirements that are appropriate to the particular functions and activities of the agency, which are not inconsistent with law or this chapter.

1809.2 Additional standards of ethical conduct must be approved prior to implementation as follows:

Questions regarding the application of 18 U.S.C. § 207, 5 C.F.R. Part 2641, or these regulations, to specific factual circumstances, may be addressed to the Board of Government Ethics and Accountability.
- 1811.3 A former government employee shall be permanently prohibited from knowingly acting as an attorney, agent, or representative in any formal or informal appearance before an agency as to a particular government matter involving a specific party if the employee participated personally and substantially in that matter as a government employee.

- 1811.7 The two-year (2-year) restriction period in Subsection 1811.5 of this section shall be measured from the date when the former employee's responsibility for a particular matter ends, not from the termination of government service, unless the two (2) occur simultaneously.
- 1811.8 A former employee shall be prohibited for two (2) years from knowingly representing or aiding, counseling, advising, consulting, or assisting in representing any other person (except the District of Columbia) by personal appearance before an agency as to a particular government matter involving a specific party if the former employee participated personally and substantially in that matter as a government employee.

- 1811.11 The restriction in Subsection 1811.10 of this section is intended to prohibit the possible use of personal influence based on past governmental affiliations to facilitate the transaction of business. Therefore, the restriction shall apply without regard to whether the former employee had participated in, or had responsibility for, the particular matter, and shall include matters which first arise after the employee leaves government service.
- 1811.12 The restriction in Subsection 1811.10 of this section shall apply whether the former employee is representing another or representing him or herself, either by appearance before an agency or through communications with that agency.

- 1811.13 Communications from a former government employee shall be exempt from these prohibitions if he or she communicates with his or her agency solely to furnish scientific or technological information under procedures acceptable to the agency concerned.
- 1811.14 Nothing in these regulations shall prevent a former government employee from giving testimony under oath, or from making statements required to be made under penalty of perjury.
- 1811.15 A former government employee may be exempted from the restrictions on post-employment practices if the Mayor (or designee), in consultation with the federal government's Director of the Office of Government Ethics, executes a certification published in the D.C. Register. The certification shall state that the former government employee has outstanding qualifications in a scientific, technological, or other technical discipline; is acting with respect to a particular matter which requires such qualifications; and the interest of the District of Columbia would be served by such former government employee's participation.
- 1811.16 The one-year (1-year) restriction stated in Subsection 1811.10 of this section shall not apply to appearances, communications, or representation concerning new matters by a former employee if the former employee is an elected official of a state or local government and is acting on behalf of that government, or is regularly employed by and acting on behalf of an agency or instrumentality of federal, state, or local government; an accredited, degree-granting institution of higher education; or a non-profit hospital or medical research organization.

A former employee also may appear pro se (on his or her own behalf) in any litigation or administrative proceeding involving the individual's former agency.
- 1811.18 The one-year (1-year) restriction stated in Subsection 1811.10 of this section shall not prevent a former employee from making or providing a statement, which is based on the former employee's own special knowledge in the particular area that is the subject of the statement, provided that no compensation is thereby received, other than that regularly provided for by law or regulation for witnesses.
