As part of this review, the Attorney General may permit written appellate briefs to be filed in accordance with a schedule established by the Attorney General. No oral arguments shall be permitted. The Attorney General may, in the exercise of his or her discretion, hold a pre-briefing conference for the purposes, among others, of formulating and simplifying the issues, disposing of any pending motions, attempting to settle the dispute, establishing a schedule for the filing of written briefs or other documents, and addressing such other matters as may facilitate the just and efficient disposition of the appeal.
- 3605.15 The Attorney General shall provide the line attorney, the line attorney's direct supervisor, and every supervisor in the chain of command between the direct supervisor and the Attorney General with a final written administrative decision within a reasonable time after the final brief is filed.
